

Project Based Learning in Szkoła Podstawowa im. marszałka J. Piłsudskiego w Psarach
8 class (lower secondary school)

Driving question : Would you like to live In a regime without freedom ?

Project description: Students should research about

- to know what is total regime
- to think of extreme ideas in our country
- how live in total regime
- choose the way of live
- to know effects ignorance of the democratic system

Academic subjects will be included : history, knowledge of society, arts, etics.

Time: 2 months

Supporting questions :

- Why people agree with dictatures and work for them?
- How people try to live in dictatures ?
- Why people fight for freedom ?
- Why do people still vote for extremics parties and politics ?
- Do you think the dictatorship has advantages ?

Background information :

- definition of communism and fascism
- investigate about life forms in dictatorship for ordinary people
- qualities and mistakes of this systems
- know what happens to those who disagreed with the regime

Informations outside of the school : museums, monuments, cementary, grandparents.

The amount of the students in the group : 4

Possible product that students can create : posters, photos, theatrical show, poems.

Presentation for : another students and teachers from our school

Assessment of process and final product :

- peer evaluation
- rubrics for the product
- school marks

